To You

When the world feels dark and cold,
And it seems like no-one's near;
In those moments of rejection,
It's You who makes me cheer.

Even when I feel alone,
Or when I am, and all are gone,
Your presence is divine, but when
The shadows closed around;
The memories were my light
Heaven, always I found.

You fill the colours of joy,
In my life full of grief,
And knowingly or not,
You take me all the time,
From pain to relief.

May we never part ways,
May this bond grow more and more;
I thank You as since we met,
I don't fake my smiles anymore.
